Creative Art Studio - Messy art therapy for kids with Special Needs

Limited Space! Guarantee your little one a spot!!!

A safe environment to be silly and get a little messy!

A playful, creative environment to enhance & promote social interaction, spontaneous play & language development for children with special needs. Through the exploration of art in this playful creative setting our children will foster cohesiveness, self esteem, concentration, and self expression in the group setting.

Each week your child will create Art and games out of traditional and non traditional materials.

Pamela Schindler-Thomsen is a Licensed, Registered and Certified Creative Arts therapist, Early childhood specialist, and Certified Hypnotherapist.

Pamela's experience includes working at the New York Child learning institute as an ABA therapist, and functioning as a Supervisor in the Creative Arts therapy department in Bellevue hospital. She has worked in both inpatient and outpatient services offering individual, group and family therapy.
